

Democratic primary voters in Michigan need to know that Haley Stevens is taking on corrupt politicians including Trump and corporations that are rigging the system to make things more expensive. As a lifelong Michigander and the only candidate in this race who isn't a millionaire, Haley knows public officials shouldn't get rich in office and introduced legislation to ban insider trading by members of Congress. She's taken on big pharma to force them to negotiate lower drug prices, and she wrote a law to stop DTE and Consumers Energy from raising electricity rates. And Haley has the record to prove it: according to the Lansing State Journal, she's ranked as the most effective Democrat for Michigan in Congress.

HALEY STEVENS IS TAKING ON CORRUPT POLITICIANS INCLUDING TRUMP AND CORPORATIONS THAT ARE RIGGING THE SYSTEM TO MAKE THINGS MORE EXPENSIVE

AS A LIFELONG MICHIGANDER AND THE ONLY CANDIDATE IN THIS RACE WHO ISN'T A MILLIONAIRE, HALEY KNOWS PUBLIC OFFICIALS SHOULDN'T GET RICH IN OFFICE AND INTRODUCED LEGISLATION TO BAN INSIDER TRADING BY MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

STEVENS WAS BORN AND RAISED IN MICHIGAN

WDIV: "Stevens Was Born And Raised In Oakland County." "Stevens was born and raised in Oakland County, and worked on Hillary Clinton's and Barack Obama's presidential campaigns before running for Congress in 2018." [11/8/22]

STEVENS WAS THE ONLY CANDIDATE RUNNING FOR US SENATE IN MICHIGAN WHO WAS NOT A MILLIONAIRE

Michigan Advance: Stevens' Opponents In The Democratic Primary Both Had Net Worths Exceeding $1 Million While Stevens' Net Worth Was At Most $179K. "While both El-Sayed and McMorrow position themselves as champions of the middle class and affordability for average Michiganders, they might potentially be millionaires. Financial disclosures filed in 2025 with the U.S. Senate showed that McMorrow estimated her net worth between $588,041 and $1.87 million, much of that money coming from diversified investment accounts, many of which are associated with her husband, Ray Wert. The same disclosures filed by El-Sayed show that he estimated his net worth between $586,022 and $1.66 million, which includes two rental properties valued, respectively, up to an estimated $250,000 and $500,000, each. [...] In 2024, Stevens' personal net worth was estimated as being nearly $380,000 in debt or up to $176,998 in assets." Michigan Advance, [4/28/26]

Detroit News: Stevens Was The Only Person Running For U.S. Senate In Michigan Who Was Not A Millionaire. "U.S. Rep. Haley Stevens, a Birmingham Democrat running for U.S. Senate, slammed two of her opponents for not filing the required disclosures about their personal finances, securing extensions instead. [...] 'Michiganders deserve transparency. I'm the only person running for United States Senate in Michigan who's not a millionaire,' Stevens said." Detroit News, [6/14/26]

- Stevens Said She Was The Only Candidate In The Race Who Was Not A Millionaire. "With so much on the line for Democrats in November — control of Congress almost seeming like a footnote to the important races statewide for governor, secretary of state and attorney general — Stevens said that's why she's on the ground talking to union workers and not influencers. [...] 'I'm the only candidate in the race that's not a millionaire, and it's not acceptable that people are getting rich while in office.'" Michigan Advance, [4/6/26]

STEVENS CRITICIZED PUBLIC OFFICIALS WHO GOT RICH IN OFFICE AND INTRODUCED LEGISLATION TO BAN INSIDER TRADING BY MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT

HEADLINE: "Stevens joins bipartisan push to ban stock trades by Congress members, families" WLNS, [3/5/26]

Stevens Introduced The No Getting Rich In Congress Act To Ban The President, Vice President, Members Of Congress, Candidates For Federal Office, And Their Spouses And Dependents From Buying And Selling Individual Stocks. "A group of House Democrats introduced a new bill Thursday that would ban the president, vice president, members of Congress, candidates for federal office, and their spouses and dependents from buying and selling individual stocks. The bill, dubbed the No Getting Rich in Congress Act, is spearheaded by Reps. Haley Stevens (D-Mich.), Derek Tran (D-Calif.), Eric Sorensen (D-Ill.) and Andrea Salinas (D-Ore.)." The Hill, [3/5/26]

- VIDEO: WLNS: Stevens Was “Going To Cosponsor Bipartisan Legislation To Ban Stock Trading By Her Fellow Lawmakers” And Said That Voters Deserve Leaders Who ‘Are Working For Them And Not For Their Stock Portfolios.’ [00:00] ANCHOR: “Turning to Washington, Congresswoman Haley Stevens of Michigan says she’s going to cosponsor bipartisan legislation to ban stock trading by her fellow lawmakers. Congresswoman Stevens, along with Democrats Andrea Salinas of Oregon and Derek Tran of California, introduced the No Getting Rich in Congress Act on Thursday. In a video statement, the Birmingham Democrat says Americans deserve leaders who quote ‘are working for them and not for their stock portfolios.’” YouTube, WLNS, [3/6/26] (VIDEO) 00:00
- VIDEO: Stevens Said She Authored Legislation To Stop Stock Trading In The House, Senate, And The Executive Branch Because “This Administration Is One Big Grift.” [04:47] STEVENS: “Look, I’m going to tell you something. This administration is one big grift. They’re the ones getting rich, they’re the ones profiting off of cuts to programs that, you know, benefit so many Michiganders [...] We got to stop the stock trading in the House of Representatives, the Senate, and also in the Executive Office, and that’s what my bill does. No sitting on corporate boards. Stop the grift here. And so we’re all paying that price. I want to see tax fairness. It needs to go further for working Michiganders. They need more money in their pocketbook, not to continue to pay at a higher marginal rate than the corporations, or in some cases the billionaires.” YouTube, Bloomberg, [3/18/26] (VIDEO) 04:47
- VIDEO: Stevens: “We Got To Stop The Stock Trading In The House Of Representatives, The Senate, And Also In The Executive Office, And That’s What My Bill Does.” [05:24] STEVENS: “We got to stop the stock trading in the House of Representatives, the Senate, and also in the Executive Office, and that’s what my bill does. No sitting on corporate boards. Stop the grift here. And so we’re all paying that price. I want to see tax fairness. It needs to go further for working Michiganders. They need more money in their pocketbook, not to continue to pay at a higher marginal rate than the corporations, or in some cases the billionaires.” YouTube, Bloomberg, [3/18/26] (VIDEO) 05:24
- AUDIO: Stevens Said At A Time When Voters Did Not Trust Politicians, She Wrote Legislation To Ban Stock Trading By Elected Officials, Including The President And VP, And Their Spouses. [00:26] STEVENS: “I, unlike many people, maybe some in our White House, I haven’t been using my position in elected office to get rich, actually far from it. And so voters in these times of high distrust, what they feel as though it’s corruption, and in some cases it obviously is. I’ve also written legislation to ban stock trading, not only for elected officials, but also their spouses. Extend that over to the president and vice president and candidates for those offices.” YouTube, WJR, [4/30/26] (AUDIO) 00:26

Stevens: “The No Getting Rich In Congress Act Draws A Clear Line: Public Servants Must Put Their Communities First, Not Profit.” “‘The American people deserve leaders who are working for them, not for their stock portfolios, not for corporate board seats, and not for foreign adversaries,’ Stevens said. ‘Michiganders want results from their government, not self-dealing. The No Getting Rich in Congress Act draws a clear line: public servants must put their communities first, not profit.’” WLNS, [3/5/26]

Stevens: “Michiganders Are Sick And Tired Of Politicians Running For Office To Get Rich.” “‘I’m not a millionaire, and at a time when Michiganders are sick and tired of politicians running for office to get rich, we owe the public the transparency they deserve,’ Stevens added.” Michigan Advance, [4/30/16]

SHE’S TAKEN ON BIG PHARMA TO FORCE THEM TO NEGOTIATE LOWER DRUG PRICES, AND SHE WROTE A LAW TO STOP DTE AND CONSUMERS ENERGY FROM RAISING ELECTRICITY RATES

STEVENS VOTED FOR THE INFLATION REDUCTION ACT DESPITE OPPOSITION FROM BIG PHARMA AND ALLOWED MEDICARE TO NEGOTIATE LOWER DRUG PRICES

2022: Stevens Voted For Passing The Inflation Reduction Act Through Reconciliation. In August 2022, Stevens voted for: “Yarmuth, D-Ky., motion to concur in the Senate amendment to the bill comprising a package of climate, tax and health care provisions.” The bill passed by a vote of 220-207. H.R. 5376, Vote #420, [8/12/22; CQ, 8/12/22]

The Inflation Reduction Act Directed The Government To Negotiate What Medicare Paid For Certain High-Priced Prescription Drugs. “Most significantly, the measure directs the government to negotiate what Medicare pays for a small group of drugs starting in 2026. In 2026, the first year that drug pricing will be up for negotiation, the list will include the 10 drugs that Medicare spent the most money on the prior year. By 2029, that list expands to 20 drugs, including medications filled at pharmacies and drugs administered by doctors, such as some chemotherapy treatments.” CBS, [8/16/22]

- HEADLINE: “Passage of Inflation Reduction Act gives Medicare historic new powers over drug prices” CNBC, [8/12/22]
- HEADLINE: “Michigan Seniors to See Lower Drug Costs as Medicare Price Negotiations Advance” The Gander, [10/3/23]
- HEADLINE: “Medicare negotiated lower prices for 15 drugs, including 71% off Ozempic and Wegovy” NPR, [11/26/25]

The CEO Of The Pharmaceutical Industry’s Main Lobbying Group Threatened To Go After Lawmakers Who Voted For The IRA. “After many months of legislative wrangling, we are left with a partisan, government price setting bill that will lead to fewer cures and treatments and doesn’t do nearly enough to make medicines more affordable for most Americans,” Stephen Ubl, CEO of the drug lobby PhRMA, said in a statement. ‘We will continue to advocate for commonsense and bipartisan solutions because the American people deserve better.’ Before the House vote, Ubl threatened to go after lawmakers who supported the bill, noting to Politico that bills passed with slim partisan majorities ‘rarely stick.’ BioPharma Dive, [8/15/22]

- HEADLINE: “U.S. move to negotiate drug prices a rare defeat for Big Pharma” Reuters, [8/12/22]

STEVENS INTRODUCED THE STOP UNFAIR ELECTRICITY PRICES ACT TO CRACK DOWN ON UTILITIES RAISING RATES

HEADLINE: “Stevens: Strip federal funds from utilities for repeated rate hikes” Detroit Free Press, [3/12/26]

- Detroit Free Press: Stevens Introduced Legislation To Stop Repeated Rate Hikes After DTE Sought A $242 Million Increase In Rates. “U.S. Rep. Haley Stevens, D-Birmingham, introduced legislation in Congress that would strip federal funding away from investor-owned utilities that raise their rates for customers within a year of the last price hike. Stevens' bill, announced Thursday, March 12, comes about a month after the Michigan Public Service Commission approved a $242 million increase to DTE Energy's electric rates, a price hike that amounts to about $5 more a month to the typical customer's bill.” Detroit Free Press, [3/12/26]

Stevens Wrote The Stop Unfair Electricity Prices Act To Strip Federal Funding From Investor-Owned Utilities That Raise Rates Within A Year Of The Last Price Hike, Aiming To “To Protect Families From Rising Electricity Costs.” “New legislation is aiming to protect families from rising electricity costs, according to a Michigan Congresswoman's Office. U.S. Representative Haley Stevens has introduced the Stop Unfair Electricity Prices Act in the House. [...] Below are details from the bill, and how investor-owned utility companies could be penalized if it goes through: If they raise residential rates in year one of the bill's signing, they lose their federal funding. If they raise residential rates in years two or three of the bill's signing, they must cut executive pay by twice the percentage of the rate increase or lose their federal funding.” WWMT, [3/17/26]

- VIDEO: Mid-Michigan NOW: Stevens Introduced A Bill To Stop Electricity Rate Increases, And Said If Rate Increases Continued Utility Executives Would See Their Pay Cut. [00:00] ANCHOR: “Congresswoman Haley Stevens has proposed a bill that looks to stop constant rate increases.” [00:05] HALEY STEVENS: “It says that if you're going to raise rates, you're going to lose the funding in year one, and if you're continuing to raise rates in year two and three, and your executive pay has got to be cut.” YouTube, Mid-Michigan NOW, [4/8/26] (VIDEO) 00:00
- VIDEO: WWMT: “Stevens Has Proposed A Bill To Stop Constant Rate Increases.” [00:00] ANCHOR: “We've also learned that Congresswoman Haley Stevens has proposed a bill to stop constant rate increases.” YouTube, WWMT, [4/9/26] (VIDEO) 00:00
- VIDEO: WJBK: DTE Pledged To Pause Rate Hikes For At Least Two Years, Making The Announcement “Just Days After Congresswoman Haley Stevens Proposed A Bill To Freeze Electricity Rates For Three Years.” [00:03] ANCHOR: “DTE Energy says it needs to increase rates again.” [00:06] ANCHOR 2: “There is a silver lining. The utility company is asking state regulators to approve that $474 million increase to help cover needed grid improvements. As part of the request, DTE pledged to pause requests for rate hikes for at least two years, saying it expects to generate new revenue from data centers. The pause proposal also comes just days after Congresswoman Haley Stevens proposed a bill to freeze electricity rates for three years.” YouTube, WJBK, [4/24/26] (VIDEO) 00:03
- VIDEO: WJRT: “DTE Energy Announced A Two-Year Consumer Rate Freeze Following The Introduction Of MI Congresswoman Haley Stevens' Stop Unfair Electricity Price Hikes Act.” [00:00] ANCHOR: “Today, DTE Energy announced a two-year consumer rate freeze following the introduction of Michigan Congresswoman Haley Stevens’

Stop Unfair Electricity Price Hikes Act. Stevens' legislation called for a three-year rate freeze on corporate utility bills with penalties, including withholding federal funding and cutting executive pay." YouTube, WJRT, [4/23/26] (VIDEO) 00:00

- VIDEO: WILX: DTE Announced “A Two-Year Pause On Rate Increases” After Stevens “Introduced A Bill That Would Freeze Utility Rates For Three Years.” [00:00] ANCHOR: “DTE is asking the state for permission to raise rates for its customers, but in an unusual move, the utility also says after that request it will not ask for another rate increase for at least the next two years. Now, big utilities like DTE need to ask the Michigan Public Service Commission for permission to raise rates, and they can only do so once every 12 months. Michigan Congresswoman Haley Stevens issued a press release saying DTE announced this two-year pause on rate increases after she introduced a bill that would freeze utility rates for three years. She argues electricity costs have outpaced inflation over the past 20 years, and Michigan has among the highest utility rates in the country.” YouTube, WILX, [4/23/26] (VIDEO) 00:00

AND HALEY HAS THE RECORD TO PROVE IT: ACCORDING TO THE LANSING STATE JOURNAL, SHE’S RANKED AS THE MOST EFFECTIVE DEMOCRAT FOR MICHIGAN IN CONGRESS

Lansing State Journal: Stevens Was The Most Effective Democrat In The House Of Representatives From Michigan. “The Center for Effective Lawmaking (CEL) from the University of Virginia and Vanderbilt University recently announced its rankings for all the lawmakers in the 118th Congress (2023-25), according to effectiveness and success in moving and passing bills, and several lawmakers from the Mitten State received solid marks. [...] In the House, Rep. Bill Huizenga was rated the top Republican from Michigan while Rep. Haley Stevens was the top Democrat.” Lansing State Journal, [3/27/25]